

Registering for DP You 2016 Directions

1. Go to <https://dpyou2016.sched.org/>

The screenshot shows the DP You! 2016 Sched website. The browser address bar displays <https://dpyou2016.sched.org/>. The website header includes the Sched logo, the text "for DP You! 2016", and links for "Attending this event?", "SIGN UP", and "LOG IN". The main navigation bar has tabs for "Schedule", "Speakers", and "Attendees". A large grey arrow points to the "log in" link in the navigation bar, with the text "Click here to login." next to it. The "log in" link is highlighted with a black box. Below the navigation bar, the date "Saturday, October 29" is displayed. The main content area shows a list of sessions for 8:15am, each with a title and a "LIMITED" badge. The right sidebar contains a search bar, a list of venues, and a section for "Recently Active Attendees" with circular icons for various users.

2. Click log in. Then login with your Democracy Prep email address and prescribed password.

The screenshot shows the DP You! 2016 Log In page. The browser address bar displays <https://dpyou2016.sched.org/login>. The website header is identical to the previous screenshot. The main navigation bar has tabs for "Schedule", "Speakers", and "Attendees". The "Log in with Sched" section is prominent, featuring a "Log in" button. Below this, there are links for "Having trouble? Reset your password or search your email for an invite from Sched." and "Create a free attendee account". The right sidebar contains a search bar, a list of venues, and a section for "Recently Active Attendees" with circular icons for various users.

3. After logging in, then hover over sessions to see what they are about and select your sessions. You should select four sessions, one session for each start time (8:15, 9:45, 11:15, 1:45).

The screenshot shows the 'DP You! 2016: Schedule' website. The header includes the site name and a search bar. The main content area displays a list of sessions for Saturday, October 29, starting at 8:15am. Each session is represented by a colored circle and a title, with a 'LIMITED' badge indicating capacity. A callout box with the text 'Click here to select sessions.' points to the session list. The callout box also contains a 'Feedback Survey' link and a description of the session: 'At the end of this session the Dream Team will be able to use TLAC techniques to build strong scholar relationships. Teachers will engage in partner work and in group work to practice techniques learned, while maintaining their way of teaching, resulting in stronger relationships while maintaining a natural, seamless way of teaching.' The speaker is listed as Tracy A. Lawrence from Harlem Prep Middle School. The right sidebar shows a 'Venues' section with a list of categories and a 'Recently Active Attendees' section with a grid of user avatars.
